Classwork Norms

Parent Emails

As a guardian, you can get email summaries about your student's activity in Classroom. Email summaries do not include grades. For grades, ask your student or contact the teacher.

The screenshot shows a Gmail interface with an email titled "Get Google Classroom email summaries for gianna". The email content includes a "Classroom" header, a message stating "invited you as a guardian in Google Classroom", and a profile for "gianna" with an "ACCEPT" button highlighted by a pink box. Below the button is a note: "You don't need Gmail or a Google Account to accept." A pink arrow points from this note to a separate window on the right.

This dialog box contains the text "Get Classroom email summaries" and "You've been invited to get email summaries. You're signed in i". At the bottom, there are two buttons: "SWITCH ACCOUNT" and "ACCEPT".

In email summaries, you can review:

- Missing work—Work not turned in when the summary was sent.
- Upcoming work—Work that's due today and tomorrow (for daily emails) or that's due in the upcoming week (for weekly emails).
- Class activities—Announcements, assignments, and questions recently posted by teachers.

If there's no activity to report or if a teacher turns off email notifications, you might not get an email summary.
